

The Salem Youth Symphony, Larry Garrett Conductor, in a Guest Performance at the 2003 MENC All Northwest Conference in Portland Oregon

! The Salem Youth Symphony provides young musicians aged 9 to 22 opportunities to Build confidence, self esteem, discipline.

Share interests and abilities with other serious musicians and friends.

Learn performance as a group member.

Develop and refine skills with sectional coaching by professional faculty.

Go on field trips or performance tours.

Attend master classes with guest artists.

Perform great music in a full orchestra.

Play chamber music (if applicable).

Compete to solo with the symphony.

Have fun!

A concerto competition winner

Recent guest artist Norman Leyden

! Highly qualified professional musicians direct the Salem Youth Symphony ensembles. Their dedication to teaching, with their experience as performers, provides a well-rounded background to enhance every member's musical experience.

! At our web site www.youth-symphony.org you can

Read all about the Youth Symphony

Meet the conductors, officers, and board members.

Print out a registration form, member handbook, even the audition music.

Check the calendar, news, rosters.

See how you can help with a tax deductible gift or an ad if you care about kids who love music. Thanks!

(Or just call 503-485-2244)